wait for me you prejudist
hate for me we used to live here admit the ones the ones that failed to weep weep weeping oh it's wrong to speak for all that sleeps not knowing the preachers bleed the hiding or escapade seems not too far from here the lost one the planet 8 admire the distant fear alone we're on our own give me the number 3:21 symbiotic it's the same old shame oh no...

are you dealing with the same hand
tell me now will you recreate the same plans the pain plan which we never knew one bit about behind our backs we stabbed backstabbing the same old shame

oh no...
will you recreate the same land watch me die
watch me dying with the same screams hear me young hear me young with the same dreams the pain dreams

symbiotic
in symbiosis
symbiotically blind
controlled by strings
symbiotic minds
controlled by freaks
symbiotic strain

deeper into the abyss black-eyed with a bloody kiss but now we stand standing proud against the wind take back this sickening scene I'm lighting a new-born flame alive we're still alive take a new number so idiotic it's the same old flame

oh no...
will you wade on through the warm sand
watch me hide
watch me hiding
when the flame screams fear belong
fear belong to the same dreams the same

dreams as I I was dreaming all along in symbiotic
still the number gets to me 3:21 the end

WORLD WIDE WEEP

world wide weep
world wide weep
suffer in silence in a world complete outside inside four walls I reign the spinning doove outside my own domain

the weeping clone
you'll never wake me or steal my throne
the lost opinions
lost in time

world wide weep
double you double you
world wide weep
it's gone too far

create your life for something better than this than this biotechnique darkness to your schizophrenic

you you and you
I'm not your saviour nor am I do me a favour tell me lies

tell them twice

world wide weep
world wide weep

you've gone too far create you life for nothing lower than this and the world weeps on for Christ's sake

creeping on the internet the last one we ever knew you'll never travel on in time the wrong doing of man and the world shall weep

dream on optimistic
human waste
you're made of plastic some disgrace ha you'll always see me in 3d you could not be me
in your dreams

world wide weep
world wide weep
we went too far too late to live for anything stronger than this life lost

HORIZON

horizon
do you remember
the time of winter
when we were so young

standing on the edge of time hanging on to friends of mine now release me and stand in line

we are moving closer to deceit and all is solitude so be a part of the new start
'cause he wouldn't go this far as the sun is it still burning the planet's still turning now we're so old

horizon
will you recover
will we discover
see the blood red
the blood red skies

you the listener you'll be a witness you're the witness you'll need an alibi... because

'cause he
wouldn't go this far as the sun

see the blood red skies
and the dried out seas
no one gives a damn
that's what worries me
witness the woods demise
and the greyish air
people died like flies
forever....

sinking like a leaking ship shivering body makes me drown open up your mind to me and I'll open up your mind to you tell do tell

is it still burning
now release me and stand in line...

forever...

MASTER GAME

hope
try not to hate me in the dominion deny yourself this or meet thy fall
stretch your banner I'll break your kingdom do assemble forces now
let the game commence

disrespect yourself
from all your lies

father by the name
would you play the game pin me down as I am now
bring me down
'cause you won't ever
break me and my sinful crown take control and it's all over
break me and my master tone fake me and receive your throne once a pawn is lost

8x8 on black or white now you choose your side

disrespect yourself
from all your tries power by the game would you break the flame

pin me down as I am now
bring me down
bring me down
break me and my master game beat me and receive your frame too late - divide the tribe and conquer them half size check mate

is all you ever seem to be lost fate sealed away lost the key just prey steal my mind conquer me now beyond the line of infinity bring me down as I am now

bring me down
bring me down
fake me and receive your name in my master game

once across the line
you were so divine now I've seen your gate
checkmate

PERCEPTIVE

search

cyberdeath a common word speak up my friend or you won't be heard internet or alternate a spiders web the human way perception proceed at persisting bury the word believe in being desception deceitful decision just decline
decline now

no one knows what lies
behind the consoul

behind the console - no one tells
at all

when I collapse
in the year zero zero
you will collide with me 2000 dark days
seemed like years
52 rainy weeks
seemed like tears
until the falling you'll see you will break down break down with me

the pain perception
the pain disciples

behind the console no one tells
at all

2000 dark days
seemed like years

the pain...
perception

no matter what no matter where no matter how I'll be there

in the darkest nights and in the brightest days untill the end will you still prevail my friend

2000 ways - 2000 dark days we all believe

some more only in reverse
we all percept
and the never ending master game we all decieve
it´s now 3:21 pm
we all respect
never betray forever you learn
so we start upon the death quest
something new and next to nothing
lost for words lost for lines lost for hate
and lost in time

do not percept

without freedom your heart is free now have the courage to follow it the Lord bless thee

and keeping thee
in defiance of tyranny of tyranny

grant them prima nocte

they married in secrecy to avoid theft rape and murder begging forgiveness from those purified by pain do you confess now fighting with passion for freedom behold the awful price of treason setting an ambush at the graveart of his lost love

so help me God
please help me on

yeah when the crime's committed and defiance collided we reigned in shame for so goddamn long yeah and when the time admits it and the dying divided we take the blame
so please help me on

you've come to fight
as free men
and free men you are they may take our lives

but they'll never they'll never take our
and our justice
the price of treason held as hostage
that's like grave art history repeats itself it has to be continued...

NEXT TO NOTHING

painted
wake me
help us
the fuck away

I am that man
who have been through hell and back surviving all attacks you've served before me I am therefore I seek therefore I reach out for something unique

burning fast I'm still asleep

always half way up or half way down
you decide the angle I am so full of dreams which I can't complete unless you help me

wake me now I'm choking help me out of this scene please now
some is next to nothing
fate would pass me something else

you've just learned to live then you died you'll find the answer in this story look deep between lines subliminal mystery the dark tale shall be told before the judge mental I bow exhale the body is cold so watch me now

I hung my head in shame as I did this that´s not the sane way god forbid it my lucky charm in my hand is a saviour
I´m still around to show my behaviour

so am that man choking
in the fire
hoping to get higher in the burning process

I am thats why I say
help me away before it´s too late
some is next to nothing,
else if fate would pass me something something I seek determination in mind and toleration inside

in submission next to nothing survived next to no one

DEMON8

in the year 2069
man discovered a new planet located behind the 8th planet Neptune assuming that the dark planet had inhabitants
we launched probes
with full mobilization digital images of the dark surface were sent back to N.A.S.A.

the next step was to deploy cosmonauts on demon8 but we always seem to loose contact with our men at 3:21 pm at first we hoped that the alien lifeform was harmless
we were mistaken

launch

launch the satelite
at the new regime
spotted parasites
must be quarantined

in safety precaution take over one by one acknowledge my decision uphold the mission
if I´m wrong
I don´t wanna be right
we´re strong
we cannot loose the fight

hold your weapons high when you´re walking
through a storm
hold your head up high
the wind is blowing
somewhere along

so advanced so unique
ready aim fire
prepare clean sweep

none of us survives summon us to kill
estimated lives
hiding in the hill
N.A.S.A.
the enemy is loose
N.A.S.A.

down graded work of god

abort the mission
I repeat abort the mission immediately operation clean sweep failed we were ambushed from jupiter and neptune
estimated human casualties approximately 2000

some of us survived none of us were killed on with our lives
living with the guilt they could take us down like a fly on the wall colliding on their ground demon8 standing tall

to complex to complete mother earth´s defeat
and by god

if I´m right now I don´t wanna be wrong somehow we´re weak
we can not take defeat

so take your weapons down
hold your head in shame
nowhere to run

WATCHING ME

it´s now 3:21 PM on the planet devon8. Operation cleansweep in progress. The black-eyed enemy must be destroyed and the master game is completed escape!!!

embrace yourself
now you ain't got a way for me to see this inscripted in clay
retali8 45 tears drifted away take a look back flashback and see 69 years now smile and grey visions of the past nightmares

stop
and turn your head around can't stop from feeling
there's someone watching me someone´s stalking me right now

escape with me
through the dark starred galaxy done it's done - it's done and all you care about is one and that's yourself

still you ain't got a way for me to read this

converted as we move along as long as we don't move alone predictions that cannot go wrong caution to the wind

stop
someone is haunting me still there

can't stop from falling there's someone pushing me someone is killing me oh God it's the truth I swear I'm dead you see through the bright light we'll meet we'll meet again - we'll meet again the night turned to day helping me show the way the seasons would not change and the reasons stay the same

ALTERNATIVE WAYS

the hunting season begins only when the spider spins a web it´s unprotected from the stalking grip

of predators lurking discrete in the trees
their nightsight lights up the skyline in greed the howling far away can be heard a wolf shot down
by a hunter in the dirt

explode
there must be alternative ways
and if so
there will be alternative days

naturalistic way of the nature through time the harsh dim reality exists don't deny

survival of the stronger no longer is true
when top of the food chain is me and you

decorating your domicile with precious deer
shoot down by yourself and hung up here
the black skin torn off and sold as fur
the rest is thrown out to the starving earth

and as for your pride
it's only fiction
reality bites
in desperation

still you decide to reap what you've never sowed steal what you can with both hands they'll never know untill that day comes when you've stole it all it's called extinction that's the word ignored by us and only us

eagles hawks and falcons could thrive with no blood red skies in the horizon...

and if so

SISTER JANE

I had my hopes
I had my pride
you have your sight
I have no eyes
my mind is tangled my throat is strangled

as a blind man to man
so sad you'll never see
as the silent man I am
pity yourself and let me be
if you could be my sister Jane maybe once but never twice read a book or feel the rain feel the rain
falling down on my skin on my skin

my only thoughts
confused and crazed
mirror please
I can't see my face
give me my cane
oh what a shame

you always laughed
on my expense
I never asked for anything
I can almost feel it I just can't believe it

what extent I never change walk around without my cane hear me out in your dreams
silent
silent man

from the first breath I took and to the last kiss I shook was it my mistake no envy swines relate breaking signs from a broken place waking up to a certain place I'm living my life I guess I'm living my life

help me please set me free
only once but never again find the man claim the cane silent man without a name without a name

silent man
